the object of receiving pensions after the death of their husbands. The pension of a veteran's widow is $8 a month, less than the average wage of a servant, who receives board, besides, and less than enough to pay board, even at the lowest rate. It is a cruel and absurd reflection upon American womanhood to charge that American women could be found willing to sacrifice themselves for the sake of $8 a month, contingent upon the death of their husbands.

This insult to soldiers' wives and widows is of a piece with the injury to the one-armed and one-legged veterans, who are accused by Democrats and Mugwumps in Congress of cheating the government by making artificial limbs last only three years, when they ought, the critics claim, to last for five years. The pain and inconvenience to be caused to the maimed heroes by being made to stomp about with a wornout artificial limb are of no consequence to those who themselves took care to send substitutes or to escape the draft altogether under the friendly shelter of the British flag. Probably their reason that whatever intervention the veterans suffer through "economy" is the part of a Democratic Administration is no more than proper punishment for having gone to the war and helped to put down the Democratic slave labor rebellion.

The dispatches tell us that "GROVER is quiet." Well, he can afford to be a little passive for awhile, for he's made an "orful" rumpus among the animal cages.

OUT in Kansas they are having more fun than a barrel of monkeys. The Populists, finding they can't rule, appear bent on ruin. Niles shows, they, to talk of anarchy and centralization.

Tobacco Users Smile Sometimes when told that tobacco hurts them; their wives never do, because shattered nerves and a bad heart are the only things that tell the story. If your husband uses tobacco and you want him to quit, post yourself about No-to-bac, the wonderful, harmless, guaranteed tobacco habit killer by sending our little book titled "Don't Smoke Spit and Smoke Your Life Away," mailed free. Drug stores generally sell No-to-bac.

GOV. MCKINLEY

Said to Be on the Verge of Bankruptcy.

The President of the Youngstown O., Stamping Co. Assigns.

The Governor Endorses His Paper for $60,000, Which He Says He Will Pay as Fast as It Matures—The Two Life-Long and Fast Friends.

YOUNGSTOWN, Feb. 18.—Robert L. Walker, banker, capitalist and manufacturer, made an assignment to Hal K. Taylor Friday, and it is probable will carry Gov. McKinley down in the wreck, leaving him without a dollar. A judgment for $5,059 was entered last evening in Franklin County, where the Youngstown Stamping Co., of which he is president, and a levy made at once on the plant. Walker at once executed mortgages on a farm and his household to partially protect Gov. McKinley and the two life-long and fast friends on his paper for large amounts. Ascertaining that financial ruin was certain Walker made an assignment.

Walker engaged in numerous enterprises, including the stamping works, Glass Works, etc. He has raised $100,000, which he gave to his friends from boyhood, and when the latter desired his signature on negotiable paper it was freely granted. The governor, having the utmost confidence in his friend and believing him wealthy, from time to time asked him for money, which they were being taken care of. Gov. McKinley arrived here Friday, and is trying to ascertain the extent of his liability as endorser, the amount being estimated at from $50,000 to $60,000. If not too much, he will make an effort to take care of it, otherwise he will be bankrupt.

Walker is president of the Farmers' national bank of Poland, and of the Girard savings bank, both amply secured and well equipped. The signature of the American Newspaper Publishers' association was brought to a close Friday evening with a banquet at the Hotel Imperial. Last year $100,000 was the aggregate sum represented by various newspaper owners; this year it takes $200,000,000 to cover the amount.

Going to the Inauguration.

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 18.—The Texas senate Friday agreed to adjourn sine die on March 1, to give the legislature time to go to Washington to witness the inauguration of Cleveland. Gov.

Hogg will probably accompany them, and their intentions are to visit Chicago before returning. The trip is to consume three weeks.

THE UNITED STATES FLAG

Go to New Up to Mouth New Hawaiian Colors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—An important offset of the annexation of the Hawaiian islands by the United States is the increase in number of vessels which may then be available for the American coasting trade.

There are known to be some thirty or forty large vessels owned by Americans, but sailing under Hawaiian colors, which may be entitled to all the protection and privileges of the national flag. At present, as the navigation laws stand, no vessel bearing a foreign yard can hoist the American colors, and no vessel flying foreign colors can be used in the home country trade.

There are a number of capitalists in this city who have interests in the Hawaiian islands, but who do not own vessels flying the colors, and they are anxious to do so and this costs. They have found it cheaper to buy or build a steamer ship in Europe and bring it out here, where they put it under the Hawaiian flag and nominally in the name of the company.

What is said to be another point of importance in the probable change is the large choice of vessels which it will give the new line competing with the Pacific Mail.

At present as the terms of the treaty stand, no vessel, no matter how large and convenient vessel, now owned in the island trade will be available for use between San Francisco and Panama.

An Immigration Commission.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Senator Clegg introduced in the senate Friday a joint resolution providing for the appointment of an immigration commission, consisting of five citizens, representing different political parties, to investigate the subject of immigration for the purpose of determining the amendment proposed in the Senate.

A conference was held after 2 o'clock Thursday morning and it is believed an agreement was arrived at under which both sides can support the measure. The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Clegg, and it is expected that the proposal as amended by them yesterday should be the ultimate.

Gov. Lewelling, Speaker Dunsmore, of the House, and Senator Clegg, all of their legal counsel, were present.

The amendment proposed by the conference was pledged to secrecy and none of them would consent to make a statement as to the result of the negotiations.

One of the populists' principals, however, has been induced to let the compromise be formally accepted by the governor, practically in the same form as amended by the republicans. It had been arranged to present the agreement to the regular house at noon Saturday, but it should have been formally ratified by the governor at the meeting arranged between him and the republican compromise committee.

The republican representatives affirmed that the bill would be passed even if the state popular delegation and the republicans left in undisputed possession of representative hall and everything be allowed to remain in statu quo until the supreme court decides the habeas corpus case to be brought, following the arrest of Dr. Clegg, the representative houses to determine which is the legally constituted body.

The house of representatives which over Mr. Douglas presides, having concluded its session, will be in session again certain persons for the sole purpose of carrying the difficulty existing between it and the body presided over by Hon. John M. Dunsmore before the courts for legal settlement, now in the interest of peace agrees to the following:

1. To dismiss all contempt proceedings heretofore commenced.

2. The body provided over by Hon. J. M. Dunsmore to arrest Frank L. Brown, chief clerk of this house, and the body presided over by Gen. L. Clegg, chief clerk of C. B. Clegg, chief clerk of the body presided over by Hon. John M. Dunsmore, both of the said arrests to be upon the charge of contempt, and to be made immediately, and the republicans' power to apply the habeas corpus of Kansas to release by habeas corpus proceedings, both of said cases to be prosecuted upon the sole question of the legality of the respective houses.

3. The governor to discharge and dismiss the state militia and provisional guard.

4. The sheriff of Shawnee county to dismiss all duly special sheriffs.

5. That the house of representatives resolved over by Hon. George A. Dorn, of Indiana, to have exclusive jurisdiction of representative hall, apportionments, hall and approaches.

This agreement to remain in force until the supreme court shall have decided the contested election.

In order to avoid misunderstanding in the future that the agreement of these resolutions or plan of action shall be ratified by the signatures of each of the presiding officers of both contending parties and the governor.

By an almost unanimous vote the resolution to the governor was endorsed by the house. A committee composed of Representatives Cubbison, Chamberlain, Atherton, Bennefield and Sherman was appointed to present the resolution to the governor. The governor received the committee in his private office.

Mr. Peterbenko, The—The case has issued an ultimatum to pardon all the prisoners who were condemned to death for taking part in the riot at Astrahan during the cholera epidemic,

IT IS SETTLED.

Gov. Lewelling Accepts the Republican Ultimatum.

The Militia and Sheriff's Posse to Be Sent to Their Homes

And the Republicans Left in Possession of the House of Representatives. All to Await the Decisions of the Courts as to Who Is In the Right.

TOKYO, Japan, Feb. 18.—The republicans were on their guard as much as ever Friday, as they expected at any moment that the governor would make a move to dispossess them.

Both republicans and populists concur in their understanding of the amended proposition of compromise submitted by the governor Thursday afternoon. The republican compromise committee, of which Representative Sherman is chairman and Chester L. Long legal adviser, studied the proposition from all points of view and decided that the proposition as intended by them yesterday should be the ultimate.

Gov. Lewelling, Speaker Dunsmore, of the House, and Senator Clegg, all of their legal counsel, were present.

The republicans' principal contention is that the naval force, for the protection of the United States, and the sentinels to be placed in the capital, is not necessary.

Martial law was declared off by the provisional government of Hawaii on February 5. Everybody is anxiously awaiting news from the United States, and the sentiment is that the situation is reported as steadily growing. A detachment of sailors and marines from the United States ship Boston is still quartered on shore.

The Japanese steamer Moran was just entering the harbor of Honolulu as the Belgians sailed, but there was apparently no necessity for any increase of the naval force, for both the whites and natives seemed content to await action by the Washington government.

Gen. Elliott, of the U. S. Cavalry, is still in command in the private residence.

The provisional government has demonstrated its ability to cope with the situation and in a great measure won over public confidence.

ALL ANXIETY.

Hawaiian Waiting to Hear the News From Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—The steamship Helge from Hong Kong and Yokohama via Honolulu arrived in port Friday morning at 6:30 a.m. and was about 100 miles away. She anchored in the lower end of the bay and no mail or newspaper will be put off until after the quarantine officer goes aboard and attends to the fumigation.

Officers on the bridge of the steamer said in the occupants of a small boat which went alongside, that the American flag is still floating over the government buildings at Honolulu, and that was quiet on the Hawaiian islands while the steamer left there, February 10, and that there had been no disturbance.

Martial law was declared off by the provisional government of Hawaii on February 5. Everybody is anxiously awaiting news from the United States, and the sentiment is that the situation is reported as steadily growing. A detachment of sailors and marines from the United States ship Boston is still quartered on shore.

The Japanese steamer Moran was just entering the harbor of Honolulu as the Belgians sailed, but there was apparently no necessity for any increase of the naval force, for both the whites and natives seemed content to await action by the Washington government.

Gen. Elliott, of the U. S. Cavalry, is still in command in the private residence.

The provisional government has demonstrated its ability to cope with the situation and in a great measure won over public confidence.

IT IS BROKEN.

Senator McDonald's Will—The One Proving to Be a Failure.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 18.—The jury in the McDonald will case, a suit to test the validity of the will of the late Ex-Senator Joseph E. McDonald, returned its sealed verdict at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The jury found the will valid and the estate settled.

The jury found the plaintiff in error.

"We, the jury, find for the plaintiffs Elliott, Forment." In a word this means that Mrs. McDonald is beaten and that the will is broken and that the will probated is no will. Mrs. McDonald held the title to the property in Washington, valued at $14,000, in Pennsylvania at $10,000, in New Jersey at $20,500, the Meridian street residence, property, this city, valued at $20,000; personal and other property to the value of $5,000.

The property in controversy was the Washington residence in this city, valued at $45,000. By the alleged will it was left to her in fee simple. By the will claimed to be lost, she had in it a life interest only.

Did you ever see Mrs. Madam Rumor? She is long and lank; she has a sharp nose, thin lips and very black eyes. She knows every person's secret, and she tells them. She is shock full of nerves. She is a regular talker. You must keep all she tells you. She must unburden her sweet, patient soul to you every time she sees you. She hates very much to be told her secrets. She wants to tell everybody's secret, and she loves to know these things, and then son great calamity will befall her if she does not tell them. Again she binds you to secrecy. She would not for anything bind you to her secret. She has a secret, and she wants to tell about it. Then every little thing that neighbor A and friend B and acquaintance C have said or done that can be turned or twisted or bent and made to fit into her secret she wants to care. She does not live to tell others. Oh, no! We would not allow that. She just visits us occasionally. But I set out to tell you that she has been going from house to house and telling us that there will be a wedding soon. Well, if it comes to pass I will let you know about it.
